

California Health and Safety Code

Section 125325 (revised February 2011)

The State of California requires every person, agency or entity that recruits donors to notify potential donors of the specific language contained in this health and safety code.

A Perfect Match, Inc. is registered with ASRM (ID#1202); therefore we are not obligated to add this language to our advertisements. We are, however, obligated to notify every potential donor of this language before she signs a legally binding contract for an egg donation and/or before she begins any egg donation procedures. Please see document following signature page.

This serves as notice of our compliance with CA Health and Safety code Section 125325 in providing information to donors regarding processes, procedures, and known risks. By signing this agreement, you acknowledge receipt of "Egg donation Information" and "Code Language." We will not be able to proceed any further without this signed document.

If you have any questions or concerns about this language and how it may affect you as a potential donor please contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Darlene M. Pinkerton, President

CA Health and Safety Code Section 125324: "Egg donation involves a screening process. Not all potential egg donors are selected. Not all selected egg donors receive the monetary amounts or compensation advertised. As with any medical procedure, there may be risks associated with human egg donation. Before an egg donor agrees to begin the egg donation process, and signs a legally binding contract, she is required to receive specific information on the known risks of egg donation. Consultation with your doctor prior to entering into a donor contract is advised."

I acknowledge receipt of the above documentation from A Perfect Match, Inc.

California Health and Safety Code Section 125325

(a) The person or entity posting an advertisement seeking oocyte donation associated with the delivery of fertility treatment that includes assisted oocyte production and a financial payment or compensation of any kind, shall include the following notice in a clear and conspicuous manner:

"Egg donation involves a screening process. Not all potential egg donors are selected. Not all selected egg donors receive the monetary amounts or compensation advertised. As with any medical procedure, there may be risks associated with human egg donation. Before an egg donor agrees to begin the egg donation process, and signs a legally binding contract, she is required to receive specific information on the known risks of egg donation. Consultation with your doctor prior to entering into a donor contract is advised."

(b) A summary pertaining to oocyte donation procedures, shall be provided, as required pursuant to Section 125335, to all potential egg donors before signing a legally binding contract to become an egg donor, or beginning any egg donation procedures, as part of compliance with the informed consent requirements.

(c) Persons or entities that certify compliance with the American Society for Reproductive Medicine (ASRM) guidelines by registering with ASRM are exempt from the notice requirements set forth in subdivision (a). Use of the exemption when the guidelines are violated shall constitute false advertising.

(d) Donors recruited through the advertisement shall undergo the same disclosure, counseling, and informed consent process, as required pursuant to Section 125335, as donors recruited by those exempt from subdivision (a).
